'83 Reunion Date Set

The plans for the 1983 385th BGMA reunion have been finalized. After much deliberation the Board of Directors has approved the Antlers Hotel in downtown Colorado Springs as the site for the 1983 reunion. Reunion dates will be June 2 through June 5, 1983. The Board realizes that the alternative of Colorado Springs instead of Pueblo as originally selected by the membership breaks with tradition. This decision was not made lightly, many factors were considered and the salient factors are presented for your information.

Your president and his wife flew to Pueblo on June 23rd where they met Bob Douglas, his wife and Bill Fife. After lunch the proposed reunion sites were visited. The first being the Ramada Inn. Their proposal was as follows; 100 rooms maximum, single $32.00, double $36.00, double, two beds, $42.00, anticipated price increases for 1983 approximately 15-20%. They could provide meeting rooms but could not host a dinner or a breakfast.

The next hotel visited was the Holiday Inn. Their proposal was as follows; 150 rooms maximum, single $35.00, double $40.00, triple $44.00, quadruple $48.00. Meeting rooms could be provided, but, again, they could not feed the group for either dinner or breakfast. The anticipated price increase for 1983, 15-20%.

The airport was next on the agenda. Frontier Airlines is in the process of discontinuing air service to Pueblo. The only available air service will be a commuter line with the alternative of ground transportation from either Denver or Colorado Springs.

At the conclusion of the visit, Bob Douglas stated that he would interview other prospective hosts for suitable accommodations. In late July, Bob sent your president a letter informing him that the University of Southern Colorado had ample facilities, typical college two person rooms. The cost of a single or double room $16.00. However, there were minor inconveniences quoted, namely, the bathroom and shower facilities were down the hall. The university is located on the edge of town with a very spacious campus. Bob Douglas contacted the president of Pioneer Airlines, the commuter line, who promised Bob that he would put on at least six flights a day from Denver. Bob also stated that he could arrange for rental cars, older but reliable, for approximately $16.00 per day. However, those without transportation would be required to remain on campus.

Bill Fife was requested to investigate facilities in Colorado Springs. Bill interviewed the management of the Antlers Hotel, a downtown Springs hotel. The hotel hosts several Air Force reunions each year and was most anxious to be our host. Room prices are higher than in Pueblo by approximately $10.00. The hotel is located downtown with easy access to shopping and dining facilities.

Immediately adjacent to the hotel is a tree lined park where members, so inclined, may take a daily stroll. For joggers, there is a seven mile cinder track one block from the hotel which follows the lazy Monument stream. For the golfers there is the Broadmoor Hotel, a sister hotel of the Antlers, 10 minutes away by complimentary, hourly shuttle bus. The Antlers Hotel has been considered Colorado Springs' premier downtown hotel for almost a century. In addition, the Antlers will provide at least two free rooms for use as display rooms. NORAD, Pikes Peak, The Garden of the Gods and the Air Force Academy are just short distances away. After a thorough analysis of all the facts the Board of Directors selected Colorado Springs and the Antlers Hotel as the site of our ninth reunion, the Fortieth Anniversary of the activation of the 385th Bombardment Group (H) and our entry into combat operations.

Prez Sez

Daily in the media, one is bound to read or hear the expression, "the high cost of doing business". Your memorial association is not exempt from this everyday malady. Our dues have risen but $1.50 in the past six years, while the C.P.I. has skyrocketed. The association has been able to remain solvent through the generosity of member donations and money left over from past reunions. If the membership scoreboard is examined (contained elsewhere in this issue) some very revealing numbers come to light. The membership rolls contain 878 385th BGMA members, 64 associate members and 20 F.O.T.E. and English friends. Let us for a moment consider only those 878 385th members. Of this number, only 35% or 310 members pay dues or are life members. The remaining 568 members do not pay dues but yet many of them attend the reunions. The question is, "Why do the majority fail to pay their dues?" One answer and probably the most obvious one that comes to mind is "THEY JUST DON'T CARE!". After all, W.W.II ended 36 years ago and they no longer care to either support the association or be reminded that they were once a member of the greatest Bombardment Group in the world.

The five dollars dues is not a large sum. If one smokes, it is less than the cost of one carton of cigarettes, less than the cost of two six packs of soft drinks or beer and amounts to less than 1½ cents per day.

How are the dues spent? Well, $500.00 dollars are spent each year to support the church and our Memorial in Great Ashfield. Approximately $2000.00 are spent each year in publishing the Quarterly Newsletter. If the worst situation comes about, the frequency of publication of the newsletter will be reduced. This would probably cause some members to lose interest, as I for one, eagerly awaited each issue of John Ford's and the 385th BGMA news. The newsletter serves as the adhesive which binds our group together.

The Board of Directors has enlisted the services of a computer billing firm. Those members who are delinquent in their dues will be billed. So please pay if you are interested in supporting the stated goals of the 385th Bombardment Group Memorial Association. The Board has also adopted the policy that MEMBERS WHO ARE DELINQUENT IN THEIR DUES AND HAVE NOT PAID THEIR DUES BY MARCH 31, 1982 WILL NO LONGER RECEIVE THE NEWSLETTER UNTIL THE UNPAID OBLIGATION IS SATISFIED. If you elect not to pay your dues, your name WILL REMAIN on the membership rolls and you will still receive notices and announcements of all 385th reunions and other functions, but you will no longer receive the newsletter.

One further item of business that the Board conducted last quarter was adopting the policy to make all of our English Friends and F.O.T.E. Associates honorary members. We all know how wonderful they have been to us in the past. Today there are approximately 75 Memorial/Reunion associations of former 8th Air Force units. F.O.T.E. supports all who visit the United Kingdom. It is unfair to ask them to pay dues to all these separate organizations, since the expense amounts to a goodly sum each year. The Board would like to ask our members to sponsor one English Friend/F.O.T.E. member each year. Accordingly, your president will sponsor his good friend, Ian Hawkins. Please send your checks and the name of the person sponsored to our Treasurer, John F. Pettenger.

Thanx's

In the July newsletter we asked for ideas, suggestions and input of material to help the editors put together a worthwhile publication. The response has been outstanding. The editors wish to thank all of you who have sent in contributions, suggestions and general encouragement. You are making our job easier.

Because of the size of this edition we were not able to include all of the material that we received. It is our policy to use all submissions, so please be patient, your contributions will appear! KEEP THOSE CARDS AND LETTERS COMING.

The editors - Paul and Elaine

Keeping Up With The Joneses

There are five Jones listed in the roster. Three are life members and two are paid up members in good standing.

Laverne and Shirley

Dr. LaVerne E. Rohrbaugh, Senior minister of Mount Vernon Place United Methodist Church in downtown Washington, D.C. and a member of the 385th BGMA, has spent more than 30 years studying and collecting the rich lore of his Pennsylvania Dutch (German) heritage. Laverne and his wife Shirley have recently published a book containing 333 of their choice recipes from among the several thousand that are in their collection. All royalties from the sale of this book are used for charitable purposes. Members of the 385 BGMA are invited to purchase copies of this book for themselves and their friends at $5.00 per copy, which includes all costs of postage and handling. Dr. and Mrs. Rohrbaugh's royalty of $1.00 per copy will be contributed to the 385 BGMA. If you are interested in helping yourself and the 385 BGMA at the same time, use the following procedure:

Send a check or money order in the amount of $5.00 for each cookbook, including your name, address, and the initials BGMA so that we will receive the refunded royalty contribution, to:

LaJoy Publications

P.O. Box 3190

Falls Church, VA 22043

Oh yes, you might wish to include the title of this most interesting and valuable book, "Laverne and Shirley Rohrbaugh's Pennsylvania Dutch Gourmet Cookbook". Dr. Rohrbaugh, better known to his friends in the 385 BGMA as Laverne, was a member of the Rosener crew which went down on August 15, 1944 and he spent the remainder of the war in various prison camps in Germany. Laverne was among prisoners liberated on May 1, 1945 by Russian soldiers at Barth, Germany. Upon his return home, deeply committed to his faith in God, he began preparation for the ministry. He has served as a clergyman in the United Methodist Church during the past more than 30 years in the following areas: Biglerville near Gettysburg, Pa; Grace Church in Hagerstown, Md.; and presently in the historic congregation of Mount Vernon Place Church located between the White House and Capital of Washington, D.C. Whenever you visit Washington, Dr. Rohrbaugh gives you a friendly welcome to visit his church in the heart of our capital city at 900 Massachusetts Avenue, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20001.

A Very Short Story

Ruth Pettenger

John and I will be married three years on the 21st of July and he has taken me to Europe three times. We went to San Francisco for Easter plus a lot of places in the states - it's great to travel. We plan to visit my daughter in Canada next. I have enjoyed two reunions and last year's trip with the group - have met a lot of nice friends and looking forward to the next one.

We are finally settled in our new home and I love it - a beautiful area near the beach and nice shops. We still have lots to do but enjoy it. Laurel, Florida is a great place to live.

Letter From John Ellis Great Ashfield, England

Firstly we must thank you for your kindly note in the letter we received from so many old friends from the Re-union at Fort Walton in May last. Your 'wish you were here' message meant a lot to us, for we remember how welcome we were made at Kansas City in 1979. Then I must congratulate you, Paul, on being elected President for the next two years - this is a great honour, and a heavy duty to follow all those who have held the office before. We had wondered who had been elected this year, and the Newsletter received last week 'told all'.

We were interested to read all the news, and hope that we shall remain on the mailing list for a long time. We had already received the sad news about John's strokes. The phone rang last Sunday evening and a rich American voice said 'Is that Jaahn?' - I guessed at once, Bob Valliere. He was over here on a business trip, and, as usual, if he cannot make it to Wetherden and Great Ashfield, he calls us up on the telephone. He said he had recently spoken to John. I am sure John's help in so many ways will be sadly missed and your editorial remarks about his organization of so many things is echoed from us, who benefited from the wonderful way he put together our journey to America in 1979.

I had a letter last month from John Pettenger with the very welcome cheque from the Association for the Great Ashfield Church Fabric Fund. I am sure all Members would like to know what a big help these donations, each year since 1976, when 180 of you all came over, have gone a long way to help pay for the work we have just now finished.

The Diocesan Architect inspects all the churches in Suffolk once every five years and the last inspection, in 1979, revealed many things which wanted doing. This included as an urgent item, renewing the lead on the top of the church tower. The existing lead was put there in 1803 and had become very porous and was letting water into the top of the tower, which was affecting the heavy old oak beams, also the timbers of the bell frame. The top parapet of the tower has heavy coping stones and, with the weather and the passage of time, these has split apart and had allowed water to penetrate into the flintwork of the top stage. Our Government has in the past made donations to work on churches of historic or architectural merit, paying 50% of the cost of the work. With hard financial times these grants have been restricted, but, because they grew tired of being pestered by me to do this urgent work on the tower, they finally agreed to help us. The total cost was about 6,000 Pounds and, with the help of the Association's donations we were able to tell the Government that, if they paid their share we could pay ours. I am glad to say that the work is now finished and will soon be paid for. We shall still have some money left for emergencies or towards our next repair job.

We have had some accounts of the Re-union, a long letter from Earl Cole and one from Ruth, also another from our friend Dr. Harold Bushey, who lives next to the Coles in Barbourville, Kentucky.

An American turned up several weeks ago and I was able to take him to the Church and help him find the old runways, where he took pictures and also a small piece of concrete for a souvenir. He was not a member, so I gave him Jim Emmons address. He is Dave Schnaars, DD No. 4 Box 280, Danville, PA 17821. He is keen to join up.

Thank you again for the Newsletter, and with our best wishes to you both.

From John and Lucy Ellis

The Veepess

June Swope Winton was born in Ohio, attending college in Toledo one year and nursing school in Dayton for three, graduating from the latter in 1942. She worked in the same hospital thereafter until Army recruiters devised a scheme to sign up whole units simultaneously. When they hit Dayton,

The Veep

Tyler C. Winton, 385th BGMA V.P., entered the USAAF cadet program from Colorado State U. in early 1942, graduated as a navigator in Jan. 1943, joined Paul Sommers' crew on formation at Ephrata, WA, with the 395th BG, and was with the first contingent of aircrews assigned the 385th at Geiger AFB, Spokane. Following loss of the crew on the Regensberg mission which he missed by medical grounding, he functioned as acting group navigator during the period from August, '43, to Feb., 1944, when he was returned to crew duties after being officially reassigned to group HQ in Oct., '43, as asst. grp. navigator. In May, '44, he was reassigned to the 9th AF's 31st Transport Group, a utility outfit that did a little of everything, from in-theater ferrying and VIP transport to airborne drops.

After WWII, Winton remained in the AF until 1948, when his lack of a degree and the immediate prospect of an unaccompanied overseas tour impelled him to return to college. He joined the U.S. Border Patrol in 1951, and was stationed thereafter in Brownsville and El Paso, TX, Miami, FL, Spokane, WA, St. Paul, MN, and San Pedro, CA, with each move more or less coincident to a promotion. He retired from the Dept. of Justice in 1973 as Deputy Chief, Border Patrol, for the Southwest Region, which at that time covered the entire Mexican border.

Since retirement in Destin, FL, he has worked as a licensed private investigator and holds a substitute teaching certificate in Florida. A son (USMA '67) is a communications engineer for a power company in Seattle, WA, one daughter is a nurse in Tennessee, and another a secretary in Washington, D.C.

Winton remained in the AF Reserve on separation, holding mobilization assignments in the intelligence (7 yrs) and special investigations (15 yrs) fields. He is now on the AF rolls as a retired Lt. Col. through the reserve retirement act.

The Veepess

Some twenty doctors and thirty nurses were sworn in as the nucleus of the 68th Station Hospital. Without any instruction in military niceties, they were hustled off in Nov. '42, to Camp Drum, NY, joined with their enlisted cadre, and shipped out to the ETO on the Queen Mary for an exceptionally rough winter crossing. (Note: In April, '45, June flew home, to be followed in Nov. by her aviator spouse...on the Queen Mary!) Once in the U.K., the 68th soon christened itself the "Broom and Mop Brigade," since their purpose appeared to be to occupy, clean up, stock, render functional, and fill new hospital complexes with patients - and then move immediately.

They did this about every three months for the year and a half until D-Day, including one stint in N. Ireland in which they had medical custody of the 82nd A/B Div., whose G-2 bungled up in the Sicily landing as a battalion exec, had both a bad knee and a kid brother in the 8th AF. Once she and Ty got the Theater Commander's approval of their proposed marriage, it became a game of tag, with him on the continent, then her on the continent somewhere else, then him back in the U.K., etc. as the scheduled Sept. wedding slipped gradually through Oct. and Nov. Finally, on a real bird-walking day, 22 Dec. '44, the powers in the U.K. dreamed up a highest priority run to France, and Ty, holding his leave orders and a large '45, persuaded a pilot to chance the flight, which was the only airplane to leave England and land successfully in France that day. They were married the next day, and lived happily until that evening, when a German bomber hit an ammo dump next to the hospital in Soissons, to which everyone was confined because of the Bulge fireworks. In spite of these handicaps, June soon had Bulge problems of her own, and was invalidated home in April.

Since then, except for the early years of her three children, she has remained active in nursing, finding employment in each succeeding duty station while keeping up with familial responsibilities. At present, she is running the pediatric ward at Ft. Walton Beach's General Hospital two days a week.

It's B-17's and bombs away on Edgewood Drive in Barbourville

BY DAVID COLE

On July 29, 1944 near Leuna-Merseberg in Germany, pilot A. L. Benefield of Ozark, Ala., and two other U.S. servicemen parachuted from a B-17 bomber which had been struck severely by enemy fire. The aircraft commander was taken prisoner by the Germans upon landing.

The other two servicemen were never heard of again, and the airplane's remaining seven personnel presumably died in the ensuing crash. The B-17's target had been a synthetic oil plant near Leipzig.

On June 21, 1944, B-17 bombardier Earl Cole of Barbourville was busy releasing and scattering delayed-action or time bombs on Berlin. On that particular mission, he recalls overtaking a plane on automatic pilot in which a serviceman struggled frantically to free his parachute which was caught in the door of the bomb bay. "He went down with his plane," the bombardier, now a retired lieutenant colonel, remembers.

THOSE WERE JUST TWO of the memories and war stories told at a reunion of Air Force buddies held in Barbourville last Saturday. Present to reminisce at a dinner hosted by Harold and Eulene Bushey were, besides Mr. Cole and Mr. Benefield, Hugh Andrew of Bethesda, Md., and Sam Cole, Earl's brother, of Barbourville. Other guests were Ruth Cole, Joyce Cole, Betty Benefield, Guy and Yvonne Millward, Russell and Ann Pope, David Cole, Susan Bushey and Bill Bushey.

Earl, A. L. and Hugh, a co-pilot, were members of the same bombardment group, the 385th, stationed during W.W. II at Great Ashfield in England. Sam, a radio operator and gunner, was a member of the 486th Bombardment Group stationed at Sudbury.

Both groups were attached to the same wing in the 8th Air Force and often flew on the same missions over Germany, which involved up to 2,000 planes. A bombardment group consists of four squadrons each with 15 planes. Earl and Hugh flew on the same plane.

Andrew, Sam Cole and Earl Cole. Dr. Harold and Eulene Bushey gave a dinner in their honor.

HUGH COMPLETED HIS tour (35 missions) on Oct. 26, 1944, while Earl completed his on Nov. 16, 1944 and Sam in February of '45. A. L. was a prisoner at various P.O.W. camps in Germany until May 8, 1945, shortly before the war ended, when he was freed by an outfit attached to the Third Army headed by Gen. George Patton.

The 385th and a particular bomber in the group is famous for having been the recipient of the last shot fired on an Allied plane during the war, or so the story goes. This was on March 2, 1945, said Earl, who knows the pilot of the plane, Frank Walls.

Mr. Cole said that even today Mr. Walls and Ruel Weikert argue over whose plane was shot at last. It seems that Frank's mission was to carry supplies, as the Allies had ceased combat flying at this point in the war. Ruel claims his plane received the last shot on the last combat mission flown over Germany.

Flight commander A. L. recalls his stay at Stalag Luft 3, as well as at camps in Nuremberg and Mooseberg near Munich. He was confined for a total of 10 months.

Stalag Luft 3 is the P.O.W. camp where the "Great Escape" took place, an event that was made famous in a Hollywood movie several years ago. However, Mr. Benefield said the escape was not as successful as the movie depicted it; most of the escaping prisoners were killed on the grounds of the camp in the attempt.

DURING HIS STAY at Stalag Luft 3, A. L., who barracked with Britishers, recalls storing raisins, sugar cubes and other items beneath a floor in his barracks. The men also made iron-ration bars out of sugar cubes, powdered milk, raisins, prunes and about anything that would produce energy.

A. L. also recalls rooming with a stingy, full-bearded Scotsman called "Golds," who upon learning that the camp was to be marched elsewhere, began pulling out his private stockpile of goods, including extra wool socks, which astounded the barracks and infuriated some prisoners who had cold feet. A. L. ended up getting a pair of socks from Golds which he put on the outside of his boots for traction in the snow.

Hugh recalls meeting a Britisher who had escaped from a German P.O.W. camp. The escapee said he knew only one word of German, a cussword, which he used to silence an inquisitive German matron while making his escape on a train to a Baltic port from which he sailed by ship to Sweden.

Hugh also tells about one plane, the 385th which was shot down on its first mission behind enemy lines. The crew managed to hide in the hedge rows. The U.S. soldiers advanced past this point, and the jubilant airmen were saved and allowed to return to America.

The rule was that if you were shot down behind enemy lines, your mission was completed no matter how many missions you had flown on. It seems that one member of the crew, the navigator, had failed to fly on the missions for some reason. He had to go the full 35.

ON ONE OF Sam's 34 missions, his B-17 had three of its four engines shot out of operation. The crew had to throw out guns and other heavy items so the plane would retain altitude. The B-17, returning to England from bombing in Germany, flew 30 minutes on one engine and remarkably made a safe landing at a British base.

Hugh recalls hearing the German V-1 or buzz bombs in London. "When they stopped humming," he said, "you knew they were coming down."

Hugh also recalls that after A. L. was shot down, he tried to borrow a piece of armored plate from Earl who, said Hugh, "had more armor than a Sherman tank" stashed away in some weeds near his plane.

"I asked him for a little piece of armor to put under my seat for protection against the flak," said Hugh, "and Earl said 'no,' he had to have all of it, that he needed it." Anyway, Hugh ended up getting his one piece of armor after telling Earl that unless he got his, no one took any armor on the plane, and after hitting Earl in the stomach. This all took place at about 3 a.m. on an empty airfield.

HUGH ALSO remembers carrying a little statue of the Virgin Mary through his missions. He loaned the statue to Earl when his own tour ended, but Earl in turn later loaned it to a navigator, who also survived, and who later mailed it to Hugh in America.

A. L. said he carried a little cloth-bound testament which his own father had carried during W.W. I. He also wore a Masonic ring on each of his 17 missions and also in the P.O.W. camp. His mother also mailed him a pocket Bible with a steel jacket to be put in the pocket in front of the heart, but he never used it, he said.

Mr. Benefield and his wife and Mr. Andrew were weekend guests of the Earl Coles on Edgewood Drive.

Mail Call

Martin Girson: I remember the talk that Col. Van gave at the Cleveland Reunion when he was in a mood for talking. He said "Everybody thinks their group was the best, now I am going to tell you how good you really were. Of all the Bomb Groups in the E.T.O., the 385th was 3rd for accuracy in hitting the target and next to last in losses. In other words, only two groups more accurate and only one group with less losses. This made the 385th a good outfit to be in."

Thanks Marty - ED.

John Cookson:

When I left the reunion at Ft. Walton Beach, I told Carl Dreibleb's that I have talked about trying to locate the other crew members long enough - now I am going to do something about it. After a few hours at the library and a few phone calls, the enclosed list is the result. (Ed's note, John located eight former crew members. If John can find former crew members after 36 years, think what all of us working together could do.)

A few years back, Jim Young of McKees Rocks, PA helped in the reprinting of the 385th history by purchasing 50 copies of which he still has 40. Jim collects squadron and group insignias. He needs a squadron patch of the 548th, 549th, 550th and Group HQ. He will trade one reprint of the history for one each of the above patches. Anyone who has a patch to trade, write Jim. Also, if you need a copy of the history, Jim will sell you one.

Obituaries

Robert L. McNichols
Robert L. McNichols
died July 24, 1981 in Venice, Florida. Bob and his wife, Phyllis accompanied the Group on the tour of England and Europe in 1980. Bob
was a member of the 549th
Bomb. Squadron. He had planned to attend the reunion in Fort Walton
Beach, but was prevented doing so by his sudden illness. Robert McNichols is sorely missed by his comrades and we extend our sympathy to his wife, Phyllis, his daughter,
Barbara and his son
Gene.

Ford Progressing Well

John Ford is making steady progress on the road to recovery. Doctors told John that there was very minimum brain due to his stroke. John has now regained the full use of his arm and hand. He still walks with a cane when outdoors, but is able to walk with out it when inside. John is on a diet of iron pills for anemia but other than that he still manages to spend considerable time in the National Archives. GET WELL SOON JOHN.
