ESTES PARK, COLORADO MINI-REUNION REPORT

Twenty nine cheerful people, including 14 wives, gathered at the Lake Estes Motel, Estes Park, Colorado on Sept. 9, 1982 for the first ever Colorado mini-reunion. They were met by Neil Rosener and his charming wife, Mary. Robert Douglas' wife, Mabel, was unable to attend as she is recuperating from surgery. (Get well soon, Mabel.)

The afternoon was spent in meeting and greeting old friends and new. Three members of Fred Heiser's crew were present. In addition to Fred, they were George Salvador and John Hills. George and Gen Hruska drove in from Omaha, Nebraska, Sam and Mary Lyke arrived from Bartlesville, Oklahoma by way of Bettendorf, Iowa. They had attended another mini-reunion hosted by Harlan and Jeane Aronson. Lew and Lone Beddow, a new member from Glendive, Montana, were also in attendance. Lew and lone had such a good time that they promised to attend the 40th Anniversary in the Springs next year. Lew's comment to me prior to the reunion was - "I don't know or remember anybody. They will all be strangers to me." Well, after about five minutes, there were no strangers. Byron and Georgia Pyle came in from Cortez, Colorado (western side of Colorado, near the four corners.)

The hard luck trophy went to Wes and Helen Brashear. Their trip from Colorado Springs required 8½ hours, 2 alternators, 1 voltage regulator and a trip by tow truck. Hope you have better luck at the next reunion, Wes.

Thursday evening was spent renewing old acquaintances. Friday morning Neil Rosener arranged a sight seeing trip to Rocky Mountain National Park for those who wished to see this natural wonder. The Friday afternoon planning session was divided into two sections - the ladies session and the men's session. Committees were formed and responsibilities assigned.

Neil and Mary hosted a cocktail party that evening followed by a no host dinner at Fawn Valley Inn. One of Neil's guests was a Mr. Heintz Adam. Mr. Adam had lost his sight at an early age, became proficient in Braille and then devoted his life to educational counselling and rehabilitation. After dinner Heintz was the featured speaker, telling us of his early life in Germany, how he coped with his blindness and subsequent achievements in education and rehabilitation fields.

Saturday morning we viewed a Confederate Air Force film and then listened to a presentation by Mr. Alex Portillo on the proposed Air Show that is to be held in Colorado Springs in conjunction with our reunion in June '83.

Rain caused the cancellation of a cookout that was to be hosted by Bob Douglas, Elaine and myself. Sunday morning found a small skiff of snow on the mountains as we prepared to go our separate ways, the majority of our attendees returning to the Denver area and the Broncos football game. Sad to say, but the Broncos lost to the San Diego Chargers.

Those attending the mini-reunion were;

Lew and Lone Beddow	Glendive, Montana
Wes and Helen Brashear	Colorado Springs, Colorado
Robert Douglas	Pueblo, Colorado
Bill and Mitzi Fife	Littleton, Colorado
Norm and Flo Goldman	Lakewood, Colorado
Bill and Mary Hoagland	Franktown, Colorado
Fred and Pauline Heiser	Englewood, Colorado
John and Ruby Hills	Littleton, Colorado
George and Gen Hruska	Omaha, Nebraska
Sam and Mary Lyke	Bartlesville, Oklahoma
Byron and Georgia Pyle	Cortez, Colorado
Neil and Mary Rosener	Estes Park, Colorado
George and Alice Salvador	Castle Rock, Colorado
Paul and Elaine Schulz	Billings, Montana
Tom and Louise Sherry	Manhattan, Kansas

Ten of the nineteen members in Colorado attended the mini-reunion. A very fine turnout and a very fine time was had by all. Thanks, Neil and Mary, for a very memorable time. We are all looking forward to seeing you both soon in the Springs in June '83.

MINI-REUNION IN BETTENDORF, IOWA - - Jeane Aronson

The Harlan Aronsons of Bettendorf, Iowa were hosts to a Labor Day week-end of the 385th mini-reunion. Those who attended were August and Kathryn Dykstra of West Bend, IA, Sam and Mary Lyke of Bartlesville, OK, Norman and Kay Gaul, Hiawatha, KS and Marvin and Virginia Benesh of Chelsea, IA. Mrs. Forrest (Pauline) Keen suffered a mild heart attack a few days before the get together, so the group all got on the telephone and wished her well. A get well card for Pauline was signed by all and delivered in person by Sam and Mary Lyke.

A lot of food was enjoyed from everyone's gardens and, needless to say, World War II was refought, with the same winners. The group had a tour of the Quint Cities and took in the Blackhawk Indian Pow Wow. In two years this mini reunion will be on the farm of Marvin and Virginia Benesh, in Iowa, again.

EDITOR AND UNIT CONTACT NEEDED

Effective June 5, 1983 the position of Editor of the 385th Bombardment Group Memorial Association (385th BGMA) Newsletter will become vacant. At this time a replacement for the 385th BGMA Unit Contact will also be needed. The present Editors will be unable to continue publication of the Association's newsletter and act as the Association Unit Contact with the 8th Air Force Historical Society and other organizations. Personal business commitments preclude our continuing as Editors and Unit Contact. We have enjoyed very much serving as Editors. It has been a challenging and rewarding period. We shall be happy to assist the new Editor in whatever way we can.

The job of Editor requires access to a typewriter and the cooperation of a good printshop. Other than that, the only requirement is the ability to write short articles, compose and edit. The time element is usually about 20 hours to compose, edit and type; and another 5 hours to label, sort and mail. This occurs four times a year.

Unit contact duties are easier: the sending of a letter and sample newsletters to former 385th BG members and inviting them to join the association. To date this has not required more than 30 minutes to one hour every three or four months.

The time is now for a couple of good people to step forward and offer their services as Editor of the Newsletter and as Unit Contact. This can be separated into two jobs or can be combined into one.

Please start thinking now so that when the time comes in June we will have a volunteer. The position of Editor is one of the most important jobs in our association. The Newsletter serves as the medium which cements our organization into a single cohesive unit. Without an Editor to get the word out to the TROOPS, the association is merely marking time. To be an effective association we need an aggressive Editor. VOLUNTEERS PLEASE CONTACT THE EDITOR.

THE SUDDEN DEMISE OF SUMMER

Paul Schulz

The demise of summer occurred at 0210, September 14, 1982. It was totally unexpected. True, the patient had been poorly the last two days. Cool, followed by an all day rain, but nothing unusual for mid September in the mountain west. Snow had begun falling in the mountains on Sept. 13 and the town of Red Lodge, Montana, elevation 5800 feet, found itself under 26 inches of snow before the day ended and 36 inches of snow at the ski resort. But that was 2000 feet higher than the town of Billings. Our weather forecasters were of the opinion that the snow would be confined to higher elevations and the lowlands (3600 feet) would continue to receive a moderate amount of rain.

The natives were totally unprepared--tomato plants were not covered, late blooming mums were exposed and the last remnants of gardens stood defying the elements. Summer died a violent death between 0210 and 0800 Tuesday, Sept. 14, when 5 inches of snow was on the ground. This was followed by another 2 inches before the day ended.

Summer was maturing and aging gracefully when, suddenly, in its prime, winter arrived. The great tragedy, however, is the complete loss of Autumn and its glorious days of Indian Summer followed by shortened days and cool, crisp nights. To have winter thrust upon you, when you are totally unprepared is a cruel quirk of fate. Summer, your loss was unexpected, but we shall not mourn. We will remember all those grand and glorious days we spent in the sun, on the beach, in the fields and in the mountains. We will welcome you back with open arms when you are again among us.

A COMBAT MISSION

Truman Smith

April the 18th, 1944: my logbook says Berlin, but the Group history lists Barnewitz. It doesn't make any difference, because we didn't get to either one of those places. "We" being 'Moon' Baughman's crew in the 550th Bomb Squadron.

It was only our fourth mission; the weather was sour; the record shows that two crews went down and the old aircraft assigned to our "new" crew was--well, it didn't work too good. I believe the idea was to go to Berlin, but clouds over the target called for a lot of turns in search of an alternate. Thus, Barnewitz--where ever in hell that was.

We were back in Coffin Corner, hanging on to the hind end, trying to keep up with a sick engine, when the super-charger on another engine went out. This left us quite alone, inside of the clouds---somewhere over Germany.

Well, even with four good engines, you don't start trying to find and fit into a bomb group, or Air Force, in zero visibility; so we let down and headed home alone; looking for a suitable target for our bombs--without a bomb sight.

Minus bombs, we landed at Great Ashfield and were met by Captain Cerrone, our Sq. Ops. Officer.

"We got a message that you were missing," he said, "And who's the first one back? You are!"

He didn't seem too happy to see us. Then he pulled a wound-up trailing antenna out of his jeep and added, "And here's your Bull-nut!"

Damn. It seemed like almost every landing we made, the radio operator forgot to reel in the antenna. It was very humiliating.

Eventually, the radio operator volunteered for B-26's, I finished my tour as first pilot and Captain Cerrone was looking for such a pilot to fly three Colonels to Prestwick, who had to catch a flight to Washington. Could I get a crew together?

I don't know how many I had in the plane. I would guess, maybe, fourteen or so. There were three flight engineers, about four guys on leave, our barrack's orderly, who had never had an 'airplane ride' and--who knows? I only know I hardly had room to drive the thing. Captain Cerrone parked his jeep alongside, saw that we were loaded and signaled me to leave.

We were much lighter on our return and I stopped at Alconbury, my new assignment, to leave my footlocker and effects. Then I had to buzz the billet of an old buddy at the fighter base near Cambridge, to show him what a B-17 could do.

What we did (I was told) was to set a wheat field on fire from the yellow-yellow flares, which one of the engineers fired on the low approach to our "target". Then I had to assign two old gunners to the orderly to keep him from bragging about how he could read the "Keep off the grass" sign from his perch in the nose.

Captain Cerrone awaited my return, but no mention of the low flight.

"Smith, I went to a lot of trouble to get just one aircraft, that wasn't on combat alert, for you to take those three Colonels to Prestwick," he said. Then asked, "Do you know where those three Colonels are?"

I supposed they had left Prestwick and were on their way to that important meeting in Washington.

"No!", Cerrone corrected, "They're in the club right now getting drunk because they missed the flight to Prestwick!"

I had no excuse, because---well, "C'est la guerre", Captain Cerrone.

I have recently learned of a 385th Gp. Assn. - through Ed Stern of Fargo, ND. This is the first I have heard of such an organization. I joined the 385th in Jan of 1943 at Geiger Field, WA and served with this unit until it was disbanded in Sioux Falls, SD in 1945. I returned from Great Ashfield to Bradley Field, Conn. in July 1945 with Vincent Masters as the pilot of a war weary B-17 and that has been my last flight in an aircraft. I can never forget those fog banks on those Azores - and I vowed if God would grant me a safe landing on his soil I would never attempt to imitate a bird again. - So far I have kept that vow.

I was chief clerk of Group operations and I remember many a time of assigning you to a mission that day - (At the direction of McDonald, Witherspoon, Shankle, Walls, Weikert, etc) Please enroll me as a member of the 385th Grp. Assn. - and let me know if more dues are forthcoming.

I have this day forwarded to Ed Stern some memorabilia of the 385th which I have somehow hung on to all these years - including all the crews etc. that made and returned from Regensburg on Aug. 17th. Remember?

Enclosed is my check for $25.00. I will become a Life Member. I joined the 385th Bomb. Gp. on January 1944 and flew with F/O Salvatore R. Patrissi as Bombarier. We were assigned to the 551st Bomb. Sq. (H) on 6 Jan 1944.

How did I find out about the 385th BGMA? Ask Paul Schulz or Dutch as we know him. I've known Dutch since the 50's when he was Sqdn Navigator of the B-47 outfit I was in. Actually, it was at a reunion of the same B-47 group where we found out we were both assigned to the same group in WWII. Small world, but it only took 38 years to re-discover the crossing of our paths.

I remember the ground crew guys saying that the dog wouldn't leave the hard stand, but I had assumed that some other crew had befriended Thunderbolt. That's the best dog story that I've ever heard coming out of World War II. If he can get pictures, John Ford should sell it to a national magazine. In the 548th squadron photo "Captain Richard's Combat Crew", the dog is in the first row in the center.

I believe my dues are paid up through 1982 but I am enclosing a check to keep me ahead for several years and make it easier with your thankless task.

My assignment at the 385th was only a little over three months, terminating on January 30, 1944 on a mission to Brunswick which resulted in the remainder of the time spent at Stalag Luft 1.

My recollection of the winter of '43/'44 consisted of practice missions, recalled missions, actual missions and lousey weather. This resulted in little time to get to know anyone other than the actual members of my crew.

In your recent newsletter I notice mention of a Memorial Wall the the Air Force Academy.

The 385th might give consideration to a similar project at the Air Force Museum in Dayton which consists of a living memorial tree and dedicatory plaque. There are already a number of Groups and organizations represented in this manner on the grounds adjacent to the museum.

I am enclosing specification sheet along with cost estimate which I obtained from Mr. Royal Frye, Curator at the museum. I also enclose several poor pictures of several plaques taken in the dark at night which are out of focus but give some idea of the appearance.

No doubt some members will attend the 8th AF meeting in Cincinnati in October and will visit the AF Museum for a first had look. I feel that this would be a worthwhile memorial to the Group and would offer a donation of $100 toward the cost.

Doris and I attended the Ex-POW convention in Colorado Springs this past July. What a beautiful and exciting city. We were impressed and pleased with everything and everyone we met. A truly great experience. Pike's Peak and the Air Force Academy were breathtaking for those of us who had never been there before.

Reservations were "scooped" up early at the Four Seasons, which was convention headquarters, so we stayed at the Holiday Inn Central. The room at the Holiday was certainly pleasant, the restaurant good and the outdoor pool great - however we probably missed some of the smaller daily activities because of transportation. Mostly we took public transportation from the Holiday to the Four Seasons. I must say that the bus system is prompt and swift.

Doris and I are looking forward to the reunion next year. Rest assured we will have our reservations in early.

PREZ SEZ

During the past year, since I first published a complete roster of 385th members and associates in the newsletter, many changes have occurred. Notably, the dramatic change in life members and paid up members. In the past year life membership has almost doubled from 40 last year to 76 this year. A noteworthy achievement. Paid up participating membership has increased a dramatic 260%, up from 270 members in '81 to a whopping 703 members in 1982. Total 385th membership has increased from 838 in '81 to 925 in '82 as we continually locate more former 385thers. Our associate membership has declined from 64 in '81 to 48 in '82. Sadly, I have reported the death of 19 members during the past year. I wish to commend our Treasurer, John Pettenger, and our Secretary, Edward Stern, for their untiring efforts of billing and collecting the money. They deserve a big hand of thanks.

However, as I have mentioned several times before: to remain a viable organization and to continue to thrive, all of us must support the association through the timely payment of dues.

The plans for the forthcoming reunion are progressing well. Colorado Springs and the surrounding area provide some of the most breathtaking scenery in the Rocky Mountains. I urge all of you to make your plans now to attend our 40th Anniversary Reunion. Plan to come early and stay late. The area abounds in magnificent attractions and you will be glad that you did.

Dear Paul,

I got a pleasant surprise at Rotary clubb the other day when I was presented a nice buckle for editing the monthly bulletin, THE BULLDUSTER.

The next surprise was when Earl Evans gave me the paper and note that had come with it and I recognized your name. I certainly do prize the buckle and noted you also make one commemorating the 385th BG. It is a pretty one too.

I've been digging deeper into history of the B-17 outfits that went thru here in WW II for a follow-up article to the news paper article of 1977 plus my part in the centennial history book of Lewistown coming out in '84.

I'd been given a picture of an unknown crew that had hung in a summer cabin for 35 years but finally tracked it down to one of the 385th.

I'd sent a copy to someone from each of the squadrons who had been here and got a reply from Bill Deexfield along with the loan of his 385th history book. They were Lt. Wm. Swope and crew pictured on the next to last page, the lower right corner picture of six. Also marked a copy of a mission where Swope and crew went down over the North Sea after a raid on Bremen 11-29-43. While they are all in class-As in my picture they are mostly quite recognizable even tho in flight gear in the book.

Lately I have also been in correspondence with Ted Thomason, who had been 1st Sgt of the 548th BS.

Good luck with the Heritage Buckles, Paul.

Sincerely

WHO ARE THEY?

Can anyone identify the above crew members?

Buses will leave the Four Seasons early in the evening of June 2nd for a scenic ride to Golden. In addition to sampling all the Coors elixer you wish to drink, there will be an evening buffet followed by an evening of dancing. This promises to be one of the highlights of the reunion. A fun night. Attendance is by reservation. The only cost involved is $6.18 per person for the bus transportation. Please make your reservations early and send your bus fare (no tokens) to Frank B.
